Why Does Candidate Desire to Become a commissioner	I want to be a County Commissioner who will work with the other County Commissioners to lead Campbell County into the future by making fiscally conservative, sound budgets and expenditures today. We will need to diversify the economy in Campbell County, but not at the expense of existing businesses. As a commissioner, I will be looking for ways we can "tighten our belts" by adding a new perspective to the Board by using my training as a CPA. I also want to leave my grandchildren, who live on a ranch by the Pumpkin Buttes, a Campbell County where there is an opportunity for them to be successful.

It is extremely important to me that I listen to my constituents to get a better understanding of the issues the facing Campbell County. I am not afraid to take the heat for the actions of the County Commission. For example, I was the only councilman to go talk to the protesters in front of City Hall when they were upset with the City Council. In summary, I will use the skills I have learned over the years to enhance the County Commission.
